

KILLS HEIR TO
THRONE OF AUSTRIAAssassin Also Slays Victim's Wife.

FIRST ATTEMPT FAILS

Archduke Francis Ferdinand and Duchess of Hohenberg Are Shot to Death.

Sarajevo, June 29.—Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his morganatic wife, the Duchess of Hohenberg, were assassinated while driving through the streets of Sarajevo, the Bosnian capital. A youthful Serbian student fired the shots which added another to the long list of tragedies that has darkened the reign of Emperor Francis Joseph.

The archduke and his wife were victims of the second attempt in the same day against their lives. First a bomb was thrown at the automobile in which they were driving to the town hall. Forewarned, however, of a possible attempt against his life the archduke was watchful and struck the missile aside with his arm. It fell under an automobile which carried members of his suite, wounding Count von Boos-Waldeck and Colonel Merizzo.

On their return from the town hall the archduke and the duchess were driving to the hospital when the Serbian, Gavrio Prinzip, darted at the car and fired a volley at the occupants. His aim was true, for the archduke and his wife were mortally wounded. With them at the time was the governor of the city, who escaped injury. The bodies of his murdered companions collapsed across him and protected him from stray bullets.

Die on Their Way to Palace.

The governor shouted to the chauffeur to rush to the palace at top speed. Physicians were in prompt attendance, but their services were useless, as the archduke and his wife were dead before the palace was reached.

Until the emperor's wishes are known the bodies will lie in state at the palace here. They doubtless will be interred in the Hapsburg vaults in the Capuchin church in Vienna.

In Sarajevo there is mourning everywhere, with black draped flags and streamers on all public buildings. The president has sent a message to the emperor expressing the grief and horror of the whole population at the ruthless crime and assuring his majesty of the people's unutterable devotion to the ruling house.

Many Injured by Bomb.

Weeping women were to be seen in groups, while great crowds surrounded the spot where the bomb exploded and where the fatal shots were fired. The bomb was filled with nails and lead filings and the explosion was violent. The iron shutters on many shops were pierced by flying fragments and iron railings were shattered. Twenty persons were injured, several of them being women and children.

Archduke Charles Francis, known as Karl, who becomes heir to the Austrian throne owing to the morganatic marriage of Archduke Francis Ferdinand's children debarring their succession, has been carefully educated. He differs from all other members of the imperial family inasmuch as he is the first member of the imperial house to have been educated in the public schools of Vienna, where he mixed with pupils representing every class of society.

He associated with working men and trades people and joined them in their games, thus getting into closer touch with the aspirations and ideals of the people than any of the other Hapsburgs. He is a first lieutenant in the Austrian navy.

The murders occurred with such rapidity that many persons near the scene did not even hear the shots. The street is very narrow and the assassins hid at close range.

STEAMER GROUNDS
DURING THICK FOGLiner California Fast on Rocks of Tory Island.

London, June 29.—In a thick fog and rain, which made Tory island invisible from the mainland, the Anchor line steamer California, from New York for Glasgow, went ashore on the rocks off that island.

Wireless calls for help brought speedy assistance from several small gunboats and torpedo boats patrolling the Northwest Irish coast for gun runners in connection with the Ulster troubles.

The California is stuck fast on the rocks, but is in no immediate danger. She struck with such force that the lower part of her bow was badly crushed and she is taking water through two holes in her forehold and second hold.

The steamer, which has on board 121 saloon and more than 300 second cabin passengers, lies in five fathoms of water forward and seven fathoms aft.

The passengers and crew are still on board. There was no panic when she struck.

Another liner, steamers and gunboats are standing by.

SENATE CHANGES
ITS OLD METHOD

No Steering Committee Under Democratic Control.

MANN LEADERSHIP OPPOSED.

Impression Growing Among Republicans That the Minority Leader Is Working Overtime—Senator Chilton Explains Affiliations With Various Gold Mines.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 29.—[Special.]—There has been an entire change in the methods of the senate. No longer is that body managed by a "steering committee," as in the days when the Republicans were in control. More than that, the Republicans had a way of handling appropriation bills and other measures with machine-like precision. "They had the works well oiled," remarked one of the Democratic employees of the senate who was comparing methods of the present with the past. Once in awhile there would be a long fight over an appropriation bill, but for the most part the Republicans were able to squelch discussion and rush their bills through with great speed, and after they have had experience the Democrats may be able to adopt similar methods.

And yet, that seems doubtful, as much independence has been shown on the Democratic side and the members of that party do not seem to take kindly to the idea of leadership.

Works Too Hard.

There is an impression growing among the Republican members of the house that Minority Leader Mann is working too hard. He takes charge of everything on his side of the house. The ranking minority members of the committees have little to say or, at least, they find themselves subordinated always to the minority leader. During one of the recent discussions in the house J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia turned his sarcasm against Mann and said:

"I like to be rebuked by my leader about once every week. I am getting used to it now about twice a week, and some time I suppose I shall be rebuked, like others, about once a day. But I do hope that the time will come when we will find the leader of the minority party in accord with members of his party at times." That was a public utterance, but there are other men who give their grievances privately, which shows that a leader may be sometimes overdoing his part.

Chilton a Gold Seeker.

Senator Chilton explained a rather small affair which connected his name with a gold mine in North Carolina and remarked that it showed "what will happen to a Democrat when he gets to fooling with the gold standard. If he would stick to the old 16 to 1 he would never have any one to question his motives." Chilton went on to say that he was second to nobody in having money invested in gold mines and that all his life he had fostered the idea of making a strike in a gold mine, so that he could be able to pay his debts.

"I have," he said, "some holes in Washington, in California, in Georgia, in South Carolina, in Virginia, in North Carolina and probably in several other states."

Joys of an Independent.

They were discussing the question of primaries and campaign expenses in the house when Congressman Kent of California took the floor and remarked that he was not personally concerned in the primaries. "As an independent," he said, "I shall run under nomination by petition. My election as an independent member of this house has left me free to act exactly in accordance with my best thought and my conscience in all matters. I have been free to aid this administration where I have been in harmony with it and equally free to dissent when it seemed to be my duty." Mr. Kent acknowledged that he was anxious to secure re-election and would be a candidate.

An Indian Slideshow.

Senator Page of Vermont in discussing an Indian appropriation bill used a new phrase in connection with the manner in which the Indians had been relieved of some of their money. "The discussion in the Indian committee," said the Vermont senator, "caused many of us to believe that the slide went down to the Indians' money was well oiled for the white man."

Difference in Senators.

The matter of clerks and the salaries paid to them was up for discussion in the senate, and Senator Kenyon of Iowa protested against the classification. He found that some senators were allowed more salary for their clerks than others. "It is the difference between senators," he said, "some are more distinguished."

Senator Warren, who is one of the senior senators, disclaimed that one senator was more distinguished than another, but said that the salaries ranged on the basis of the amount of work to be performed. Kenyon stuck to his idea and went through the list and pointed out how senators of long service were able to get more money for their employees. That has been the case in the senate for as long as one can remember.

JOHNSON OUTFIGHTS MORAN

Colored Boxer Retains His Title as Champion.

Paris, June 29.—Jack Johnson held on to his title as heavyweight champion of the world. Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh heavyweight, who aspires to the honor, lost the twenty-round bout with the big negro at the Velodrome d'Hiver, but the battle might have been construed as a disappointment to the crowd, which hissed and hooted as they poured out from the ringside because in the last few rounds it appeared that Johnson was not doing his best, although he affected being tired and worn out.

Moran seemed to be entirely too aggressive and Johnson, displaying his clever blocking familiar to old fight fans, let him do nearly all the leading. Moran was impatient throughout most of the bout and his anxiety to get Johnson to lead contributed largely to his defeat.

FOUL BALL STRIKES AND KILLS YOUTH.

Chicago, June 29.—Joseph D. Adam, fourteen years old, a spectator at a corner lot baseball game, was killed when a foul ball struck him above the heart.

PIERCE REFUSES TO TALK ABOUT MEXICOCaptain Hopkins Admits Giving Aid to Rebels.

New York, June 29.—When an effort was made to interview Henry Clay Pierce regarding the revelations of "big business" activity in Mexican affairs, with which his name was prominently connected, he refused to see reporters.

A reporter called at the Pierce residence and was informed that Mr. Pierce was out of town.

Captain Hopkins, in Washington, said: "When President Madero, his brother Gustavo and other good friends of mine were assassinated by Huerta, who set himself up as dictator, I lost no time in giving all the aid in my power to the Constitutional cause, represented by Governor Carranza, who has meanwhile risen up in arms for the purpose of restoring a regime of law and order. In this connection I have, of course, held no official position and my services as adviser have been rendered voluntarily and without compensation. "The insinuation that I have attempted to influence General Carranza in favor of certain large interests in Mexico is absolutely false. I have not."

RUNS WITHOUT MOTORMAN

Train Travels Half Mile Before Employee's Death Is Discovered.

La Porte, Ind., June 29.—A two-car train on the Northern Indiana Electric railway ran wild for half a mile before frightened passengers discovered the motorman missing. The conductor applied the brakes and ran the train back to a curve, where the body of the motorman, Stanley Witucke, was found. It is believed he died of heart disease and was thrown off the platform when the train took the curve at high speed.

Long Distance Fly Swatter.

Janesville, Wis.—When clubwomen of Janesville inaugurated a campaign and offered a bounty of 10 cents per 100 dead flies, they had no intention of making the contest nation wide. Nevertheless the committee sent 60 cents to Master Wayne Rogers, Star, Miss., a nine-year-old lad who had read of the Janesville fight and got busy. He sent the carcasses in an envelope which contained a note written in a childish scrawl.

STOPS SHELLING

PROBE REVOLT

Inquiry Probable as to Attitude of Big Business.

SENSATIONS ARE DEVELOPING

Various Reports Are in Circulation

That Rival American Interests Have Been Active in Keeping Mexican Insurrection Alive—Senate Leaders Feel That Thorough Inquiry Is Necessary.

Washington, June 29.—"Big business" is to be placed once more on the grill by the United States senate to establish exactly the part it has played in initiating and supporting revolutions in Mexico.

Study of the sensational correspondence between New York financiers and their Washington agents and General Carranza and other Constitutionalists confirms in great detail the alleged exposure.

In the circumstances senate leaders feel there is but one thing to do, that is to set at work a new subcommittee of the senate foreign relations committee, of which Senator William Alden Smith is chairman, and to give it full powers to probe to the very bottom of one of the greatest international scandals of the age.

Nothing that has occurred recently has aroused such intense interest as the publication of the private correspondence between the Washington junta of the Constitutionalists and other Constitutionalists.

On the one hand the Standard Oil interests are alleged to be backing Huerta and are in control of the situation so far as the Mexican railroads and oil interests are concerned.

On the other hand the Pierce-Flint interests are alleged to be supporting Carranza.

In the opinion of every one here until the differences between these great interests are composed the war in Mexico will continue.

It is apparent that peace in Mexico would be impossible until "big business" had been eliminated from the situation.

Mediation at Niagara Falls was doomed to failure, so far as the internal situation of Mexico is concerned. The Waters-Pierce interests could not afford to permit Carranza to participate in the negotiations and to enter in agreement with Huerta.

The effect of such an agreement would be to retain the Cowdray or Standard Oil interests in control of the railroads.

The expose, with the promise of further revelations, acted as a bombshell in the headquarters of the Constitutionalists here.

The whole matter is to be aired in the United States senate.

CARRANZA ASKS FOR TIME

Rebel Chief Wants to Consult With Generals.

Washington, June 29.—General Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the Mexican Constitutionalists, has replied to the invitation extended for participation by his agents in an informal conference with representatives of General Huerta and the United States concerning plans for a provisional government in Mexico, asking that he be given time to consult with his generals.

Assurances are said to have been given the mediators by General Carranza that he would hasten the proposed consultation with his chiefs in order that some definite understanding could be reached quickly as to the position to be taken with regard to the informal mediation conference.

WORK FOR PEACE SECRETLY

Said Carranza and Huerta Are Conducting Negotiations.

Vera Cruz, June 29.—Secret peace negotiations between General Carranza and President Huerta have been in progress in the capital, according to Antonio Magnon, an American, who arrived from Mexico City. Mr. Magnon said it is known positively that representatives of Carranza have been in the capital several days in conference with President Huerta, but that the details of the discussions are unknown.

BANDIT AND VICTIM DEAD

Head of Detroit Hardware Firm Shot by Robber.

Detroit, June 29.—John Burbank, president and treasurer of a local hardware company, was shot and killed by an alleged highwayman whose body was found a block away from the place where Burbank fell. Burbank is believed to have shot and killed his assailant after he himself had received four bullets which proved fatal. The alleged assailant has not been identified. A revolver was found beside each body.

American Gunboat Fires on Dominican Federals.

REQUIRES ONLY FEW SHOTS

Captain Russell of the Machias Had Warned the Contending Forces at Puerto Plata Against the Use of Artillery and When the Government Forces Used Heavy Guns the American Gunboat Took Prompt Action.

Washington, June 29.—Bombardment of the rebel city of Puerto Plata by President Bordes of Santo Domingo was silenced late Friday by fire from the main battery of the American gunboat Machias. Only a few shots were required for the task.

News of this incident came to the navy department in a belated dispatch from Captain Russell, on board the battleship South Carolina. The Machias, which carries eight four-inch guns, was sent into the inner harbor at Puerto Plata prepared for battle after the Dominican forces had time and again violated an agreement not to use artillery in attacking the rebel forces holding the port.

Captain Russell was sent to Dominican waters with general instructions to protect American and other lives and property. He had warned the contending forces against the use of artillery, which meant certain death to noncombatants, and had been promised that only small arms would be employed.

During the weeks he has been in Dominican waters Captain Russell has made numerous ineffectual attempts to bring the leaders of the opposing armies to a peaceable agreement. Several futile conferences were held on board the American battleship between representatives of the federals under President Bordes and the revolutionists.

INDIAN FIGHTER IS SLAIN

Mike Prendergast, Aged Frontiersman and Army Scout, Killed.

Aberdeen, S. D., June 29.—"Wisconsin John Pobitz," Fred Mertz and "Bub" Wilson, three well known characters in the vicinity of Stroom, Perkins county, and three sheep herders, are in the county jail at Bison, awaiting examination on the suspicion of having killed Mike Prendergast, aged seventy-two years, in a drunken row.

The party of seven left the town to visit a gypsy camp, eight miles from Stroom. The gypsies claim the six prisoners attacked Prendergast and beat him into unconsciousness. The gypsies say Prendergast was still alive when the men left and the authorities believed he either died or was killed on the way back to town.

Prendergast was a frontiersman, scout and Indian fighter in the early days of the Northwest, having served as a scout at Fort Meade fifty years ago. In later years he spent his time at different cattle camps and when the homesteaders drove the cattlemen away he went to Stroom, where he earned his livelihood by doing odd jobs.

EXCURSION STEAMER BURNS

Crew Escapes Fiery Death by Jumping into Water.

Grand Haven, Mich., June 29.—Two men were seriously burned and a full crew of sailors escaped death only after fighting their way through smoke and flames and jumping into the water when the big excursion steamer Manistee, formerly the Petoskey, caught fire while lying in the Johnson repair docks and was totally destroyed. The boat was owned by the Northern Michigan Transportation company and the loss is estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000, partly covered by insurance.

Illinois Honors Soldiers.

HUGE FISH PULLS

THREE FROM BOAT.

Bemidji, Minn., June 29.—Being hauled overboard by a fish jerked the woman into the W. H. Gish was barely rescued from drowning in water nearly one hundred feet deep. Mr. Gish was with his wife and a little boy. The fish got on Mrs. Gish's line and when she attempted to hold it the fish jerked the woman into the stream. The little boy followed in an attempt to hold in the woman. A dog riding in the boat grabbed at the boy as he fell, and the dog, too, was pulled into the water. Mr. Gish jumped into the water and saved all three.

them at every turn. They made Riordans. From that point they walked five miles through mud and rain and missed the train at Nisswa by 15 minutes. In the early morning hours, none of the cottagers would admit them and the tired, hungry, soaked to the marrows crowd built a fire at the depot and warmed one side at a time. At length somebody got up in Nisswa and permitted them to telephone to Brainerd for an auto and they arrived in Brainerd at 10 o'clock in the morning. Then Cook put on his uniform and six hours later played ball and scampered around bases like a colt in a meadow.

299 Railroads in U. S. Carry This Number In Year Without Mishap.

Chicago—Two hundred and ninety-nine railways of the United States, operating a mileage equal to the combined railways of the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Austria and Italy, went through last fiscal year without a single fatality to a passenger in a train accident.

The railways, which operate together 120,901 miles of line, constitute more than two-thirds of the operating companies making their annual reports to the bureau of railway news and statistics.

During the year the railways thus reporting complete immunity carried a total of 409,808,488 passengers.

Communication
To the Editor:
I think it a matter of public interest to inquire whether or not we are receiving all the benefits we ought to have from the municipal ownership of water and light plants, and to raise the question of a reduction of rates therefor particularly as it concerns all home consumers.
We paid for the old water plant $57,500. The yearly interest on this we pay $2,875. We lose the tax the old water Co. paid yearly, $600. We are out yearly for interest and loss of taxes $3,475.
What benefit do the home consumers receive for this? Do they get reduction of rates? Nary a cent. Do they get better service or better water?
There may be better water, still most of us pay $12 extra a year for drinking water to private parties.
The old and present water rates are as follows:
4 room house or less per year—$7.00
5 room house per year ———$8.00
6 room house per year ———$9.00
7 or more rooms ———$10.00
Bath room ———$10.00
Lawn ———$5.00
Ten per cent off for prompt pay.
Making $25 per year for a fair sized house. Add to this $12 per year for spring water and we have a cost for water only $37.00.
In Minneapolis I paid $12.80 per year for 14 room house. In Seattle $12.60 per year for 6 room house for finest water in the world, clean, cold mountain water. Both cities have municipal ownership of water and lights.
It has been published in the Dispatch that the net earnings of our water plant for the past 4 years was $32,127. If this is correct why not reduce the rate to all home consumers especially most of whom are least able to pay.
As to the electric plant. The authorities state publicly that the net earnings in the last four years have been $41,815. Total earnings net of both plants for four years $73-942. If these figures are correct and they come from the mayor and others who ought to know, it seems s-though a reduction could be made in both light and power charges. It is good public policy to furnish cheap light, water and power, being common necessities.
Our electricity costs the city as follows: First 800,000 k. w. h. 2 3-8 cents per k. w. h.; all over 800-000 2 cents per k. w. h. We sell this light for 6 1/2c and power for 6 c per
k. w. h. To encourage new industries to locate here and in justice to those already here a much lower rate should be given. In fighting the greatest objection I have is to that diabolical charge of 75 cents per month whether lights are used or not. Think of our own beloved city forcing our poorest people who need every penny for a bare existence to pay 75 cents a month for nothing or go without electric lights. It is said the city needs the money.
I hold that charges for these necessities should be based on actual cost —after charging off the proper amounts for interest, depreciation repairs and a reasonable surplus for emergencies. New lines and extensions should not be paid for by consumers on old lines. We need to provide as soon as practicable for a supply of the best drinking water possible. Sufficient bonds should be voted for this purpose, but present consumers should not pay a rate that would furnish the necessary capital any more than boarders should pay an increased price for board to furnish funds for the landlady or landlord to build an extension to the house, or a railroad charge a higher rate of fare because they want to build a new line.
Let us run municipal plants for the benefit of people who pay the bills and not for profit.
P. B. NETTLETON.

EARNS COLLEGE COURSE
ON TWO ACRE FARM
Lad of Seventeen Clears $800
by His Industry.
Waterloo, Ia.—An income of $800 from two acres within a few months is the record made last summer by Glenn Trapp, a seventeen-year-old boy.
The boy, who formerly was a news carrier, paid for his land with the onions that he raised and made a neat sum in addition on other vegetables.
A desire to earn enough money to go to college was the incentive for the venture by young Trapp. Early last spring he purchased two acres of ground in Beaver Gardens, ten miles north of Des Moines, on the Perry Interurban. The land cost him $500, and he made the first payments with money he had earned and saved while carrying papers.
The boy erected a tent on his two acres and lived there during the summer, doing his own cooking and working from dawn till dark on his small farm. He planted the most of his land to onions, also putting in a few melons, potatoes and sweet corn. By thinning out his onion crop early in the summer he realized nearly $600 on young onions. The onions he harvested later are recognized by experts to be about the best grade and quality that have been raised in Iowa. He took out nearly 600 bushels of onions, for which he received $1 per bushel.
His melons, potatoes and sweet corn have brought him an additional income.
Within another year Trapp expects to have sufficient funds to complete a full college course. His success with his two acres is considered an excellent example of the possibilities of intensive farming.

ING OVER THE CITY TAX LISTS

Equalization Board Now in Session at the Council Chambers of the City Hall

SDAY FIELD DAY FOR KICKS

Property Return, by Assessor $403,250—Moneys and Credits $400,000

The equalization board composed of R. A. Henning, Alderman Anderson and Alderman D. A. Peterson concluded its examination of personal property tax lists and is today giving over real estate valuations, assisted by L. U. White and Alderman James R. Smith.

On Tuesday, June 30, from 9 to 12 in the morning and 1 to 5 in the afternoon, will be a field day for kicks, board hearing all objections to the same.

Under the new assessment laws, effect now, it will be more difficult for the city to collect a large personal property tax. One may own a house worth of personal property and have to pay a cent personal property tax. Household goods are taxed one-fourth their value. One of $400 leaves $100, and exemption is allowed the head of each family, and consequently in the like this the city collects nothing.

Class No. 1 includes from one mined to this there is at present none in the city.

Class No. 2 includes household furniture, rugs, books, pictures, jewelry, etc. This is assessed at one-half its true value. The assessed value of household goods is $49,900; rugs and carpets $5,506; books, etc., $3,724; 858 sewing machines $2,921; 1,551 watches, etc., $3,012; jewelry, diamonds, etc., $3,596; 634 pianos $25,000; other musical instruments $898; other personal property $505. There are 533 pigs, carriages, etc. assessed value $2,257; dogs $497; 13 hogs $31; cows $3,377; 104 autos $19,405; motorcycles, bicycles, etc., $1286; bats, launches, etc. $551; typewriters, adding machines, etc. $3,485. Total of class No. 3 at its true value is $735,399 and the assessed is $254,216.

MIKE REILLY IS HEARD FROM

Boosts for Detroit as Place to Hold the Merchants and Clerks Picnic August 5

DETROIT ADVANTAGES BOOMED

Free Auto Rides for Everybody, Nature's Play Ground Exists in Detroit, Minn

When Ed Rogers came to Brainerd and boosted for Walker as the next center for the Merchants and Clerks picnic, Wednesday, August 5, the story was read by Mike Reilly, now living at Detroit, Minn.

Mr. Reilly is an ardent booster for Detroit and he immediately grabbed his typewriter and smiting the keys, inscribed this letter to his friend, Mr. William Ebenezer Brockway, of Brainerd.

"Dear Bill: I notice by the Brainerd Dispatch that the clerks are going to let you merchants attend a picnic with them in the near future and that there is some talk of going to Walker, Minn.

Now Walker is not one, two, or three in comparison to Detroit, Minn. We have Nature's playground here, equipped with pavilions, iron swings, merry-go-rounds, teeter-totters, etc. (This was evidently copied from the booklet on Detroit.)

There are plenty of boats for excursions on the lakes and the people will furnish free auto rides all over the city and nearby summer resorts for everyone that comes.

The difference in fare up here and Walker is only about 60c per. I do not see what everyone finds so interesting up there at Walker looking at the jackpines all the way up and back. It is time you were getting out of the old rut of going to Deerwood, or Walker, or the suburbs of Brainerd for an outing. Up there they have only one saloon and here we have six.

The privilege of seeing me ought to be enough of an attraction alone. I should think Mr. W. H. Cleary would pay the expenses himself and take his trade out. That is what we do here.

I wish you would take this up with the committee and give it your consideration. I enclose you a little booklet. Look it over and come. Your friend, MIKE.

Bladder irritations, kidney troubles, dull headaches, weariness, pain in back and sides, all show the kidneys need to be toned up, strengthened, their regular action restored. ## COURTESY TO AN OLD WOMAN WINS $25,000

Mrs. Oster of Denver Rewards Young Man.

Denver.—For being courteous to an aged woman Robert Reiner has been left $25,000 in her will, but Mrs. Christina J. Evans, who took care of the same old lady's dog until the dog died, for which, she says, she was promised $500 in the will, had to start suit in the district court against the estate in order to collect the money she said was due her.

The old lady was Mrs. Cella Oster. She was worth about $100,000 when she died a short time ago and divided her money and property among a number of friends and heirs and made several bequests to charitable institutions, but Reiner came in for the rest of the estate, receiving $10,000 from it and all of the money Mrs. Oster had in two Denver banks, amounting to $15,000.

Mrs. Oster became a widow a number of years ago and, being childless, found that nobody was kind to her unless he was well paid for his little services. Reiner, however, she found to be a different sort, although a young man. He entertained Mrs. Oster in numerous ways and never asked anything in return. When she died he found he suddenly had become rich.

When Mrs. Oster made her will she left $1,500 to be paid to Mrs. Evans for taking care of her dog, Daisy, until the latter's death. Daisy died in July, 1913, and shortly before Mrs. Oster's death she made a codicil to her will in which she revoked the bequest to Mrs. Evans.

Young Man Dies After Convivial Evening With Friends.

Philadelphia.—After dropping unconscious in his home Edward Cavanaugh, Jr., twenty-one, died soon afterward.

According to the police, Cavanaugh went for a stroll with several friends. He never had drunk whisky before. During the evening he had several drinks.

He returned home and, according to his father, was not intoxicated. He went to the cellar to remove a nail from his shoe and called that he was dying. His father rushed to his aid, but he died a few minutes later.

BEST GAME OF ENTIRE SEASON

In Whirlwind Ninth Inning Finish Brainerd Wins from the Miltons of St. Paul

ALDERMAN PITCHES GOOD GAME

Brainerd's Lightning Double Play in Ninth, Templeton on Third to Cook on First

The Brainerd-Miltons game played Sunday afternoon is by far the best exhibition of baseball ever witnessed in Brainerd this season, and as a matter of fact, for several seasons.

Like the proverbial great drama the interest was sustained and the climax was reached at the end, Brainerd winning 3 to 2 in a whirlwind finish, with bases filled and no one out, Cook's terrific drive bouncing the ball on the left field fence.

Alderman pitched a superb game and Happy showed his gameness and his never die spirit when he pitched himself out of the pinches. He was given brilliant support. Richard Bush, brother of the illustrious Joe Bush, played the best game of his career, hitting the ball every time he came to bat and fielding gracefully and certainly every ball in his territory.

And when Brainerd needed the run in the eighth inning to tie the game, it was the tail end of the batting list, Sheffio and Bush, who came to the rescue, and pounded the pill when hits meant runs.

Errors in the third inning contributed to work Anderson, of the Miltons around the bases and he brought in the first score for the St. Paul men. Hits of Peterson and Makista scored Grogan, of the Miltons, in the fourth. With the score 2 to 0, Brainerd looked doomed to a shutout until the eighth.

Cook came to bat and went out, short to first. Templeton hit the ball near deep center. He advanced to second on Makista's balk. Sheffio hit into left field and amid a pandemonium from the grandstand, bleachers and field, Templeton scored the first run and removed the odium of a shutout. Bush hit the ball inside the first base line and Sheffio tore into home on the play and brought in score No. 2. Bush died on bases as Gaven and Alderman fanned.

The Miltons came to bat in the first half of the ninth. F. Peterson died easy, Alderman to Cook. Zenzius and Anderson perched on bases and then came a lightning double-play which lifted spectators out of their seats and rocked the field with enthusiasm. Picha struck the ball within the third base line. Templeton fielded it, tagged the base, forcing out Zenzius and then whipped it to Cook, beating out Picha by a foot.

With the score 2 to 2, Erickson came to bat. He drew a base on balls. Victor waited for a good one and then gave a sharp swing and sent the ball for a clean hit against the left field fence. Larson delivered a bunt near third and as the pitcher and third baseman of the Miltons argued, Erickson slid to third and Larson beat the ball to first.

With the bases filled, the score 2 to 2 and no one out, Fred Cook grasped his club and giving it a Bakerized twist, slammed the ball near the left field fence and everybody commenced moving around the circuit, and Brainerd won.

Makista had been touched up for six hits in the last two innings. Previously all the breaks of the game had been in the Miltons' favor, but the eighth and ninth belonged to Brainerd and she took full advantage of the same.

Some fine individual plays were catches in the field by Victor and Bush, a foul in the crowd caught by Templeton, a high jump and stop by Cook, a foul catch by Picha, who caught the ball and hung on the same when he fell down.

Two decisions of Umpire Hall did not please the crowd, one when Cook made a high jump for a throw and the runner Picha, believing it thrown wide, had stepped from the base and was touched by Cook when two feet off the base and the slide of G. Peterson to second, nailed by Larson, both called safe. However no man on earth can umpire balls and strikes and bases too unless he has another set of eyes in the back of his head.

Next Sunday the Miltons set out on a week's tour and will play Wilmar, Marshall, Laverne and other towns. They held the St. Joe-Deckers 4 to 4 in a 10 inning game and defeated Hudson 2 to 0. They are assured of a big crowd should they ever come back to Brainerd and Manager Kennedy hopes to arrange a date with Manager D. A. Peterson.

POSTAGE STAMP MAP.

Unique Idea Worked Out by an Atchison Letter Carrier.

Atchison, Kan.—John Fortune, a mail carrier of this city, has completed a map of the United States from postage stamps. By using stamps of various colors he separated the original thirteen colonies, also outlining every state. The large rivers are shown with orange colored stamps. In the center of the map is a great American eagle with wings spread, the olive branch and bundle of arrows clutched in its talons. Above the eagle is worked out the phrase "E pluribus unum." The great lakes are shown and the Canadian border is designated with Canadian stamps.

The map is bordered with pictures of presidents, the likenesses being secured from stamps of various designs. In the center of the state of Virginia is a copy of the Declaration of Independence, bordered with stamps of Washington design.

The stamps are all pasted upon a canvas, 5 by 9 feet, and each one of them has been rimmed, requiring infinite patience and work. The exact number of stamps used in making the map is known only to Mr. Fortune, as it is his intention to lease it to large stores to be used as a basis for guessing contests.

KILLS RATTLER, WINS WIFE.

Romance Is Helped Along When Ranchman Slays Coyotes.

Denver.—Three years ago Patrick J. Kerrigan was riding over his homestead, near Deer Trail, Colo., when he came upon a young woman who had encountered a rattlesnake. Kerrigan dismounted from his horse and killed the snake. The young lady thanked him and went to her cabin, adjoining his homestead.

Later the same year Kerrigan killed a number of coyotes engaged in the slaughter of the young woman's stock. Again she thanked him and again he rode away. Thus their romance began.

Finally Kerrigan proposed and Mary Dougherty accepted. The romance reached its climax when the pair were married at St. Patrick's church, North Denver.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it incurable, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. ## GREAT ESTATE TO BE U. S. RESERVE

Government to Buy 86,700 Acres at Biltmore, N. C.

GAME AND FISH ABOUND.

Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, following wishes of her husband to have Forest Preserved, Will Sell Piece to Uncle Sam—One of the Most Magnificent Domains in America.

Asheville, N. C.—The 86,700 acres of beautiful wilderness at Biltmore, N. C., which the United States forest reservation commission recently decided to buy from Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, is the largest area owned by the nation east of the Mississippi river and is destined to serve as a national park for the 35,000,000 people who live within a radius of a day's journey from it. Most of them know nothing of its character, and few of the many thousand visitors who have passed on the white roads of the Biltmore estate and admired the magnificence of Biltmore house have glimpsed more of it than the misty blue barrier that bounds it on the northwest.

It is a lordly domain of 134 square miles of wooded mountains and rushing streams which has thus been added to the national possessions. It is the most extensive hardwood reserve east of the Rockies. It is a game and fish preserve which has few equals. It has seventeen miles of good roads built for use by automobilists, cresting heights over 5,000 feet above sea level. Great mountains rise in its bounds, culminating in the rock peak of 5,757 feet high Pisgah. There are grassy "balds" and domes dark with balsam, and rock cliffs overhanging bear and wolves. On the slopes are magnificent trees and tangled areas of rhododendron and laurel.

Thousands of high placed springs send their icy waters in rushing rivulets down to streams which foam over beds of rock and swirl in dark pools by vast bowlders. The beds are paved with rocks, and often the white water spreads in silvery shimmer over giant floors of granite. Waterfalls are here and there, one on Looking Glass creek having an abrupt fall of sixty feet. Scores of small streams unite to form the Davidson river, which empties into the French Broad.

The reserve extends from a point six miles from Asheville southwest to Pisgah Forest station on the Toxaway branch of the Southern railway, lying between the Brevard-Asheville state road on the southeast and Pisgah ridge on the northwest, its due north limit being a line drawn from Pisgah to a point four miles from Biltmore house. Much the greater part of it is in Transylvania county.

The automobile road built by Mr. Vanderbilt overlooks it, and by using it one can be in the midst of the wilderness in two hours' ride from Asheville, and Asheville is only twenty-one hours journey from New York. The automobile road ascends 2,500 feet to the elaborate hunting lodge of the Vanderbilts, which with 500 acres adjoining is excepted from the sale, and then continues along the ridge ten miles, topping some heights and circling other peaks while maintaining an average elevation of 4,500 feet above sea level.

Each turn of this road develops new beauties. Sometimes it hangs over a precipice looking down on a sea of greenery, and again from a lofty point one sees a vast panorama of mountains rising and falling apparently like billows—several of the balsams being higher than Mount Washington—and in the distance the prodigious wall of the Great Smokies on the Tennessee line. The secretaries of agriculture, interior and war came up this road from Asheville to the hunting lodge, twenty-seven miles, in an hour and a half, and at that the chauffeur took no chances of creating any vacancies in the cabinet. These government officials inspected the property in 1913.

An extension of this road a dozen miles to Brevard would connect it with the state road to Asheville, now in very good condition, and thus provide a sixty mile tour for automobiles. From it Mr. Vanderbilt constructed two well graded roads leading down into the valleys, and there one finds many miles of easy gradient highway which he built along the water courses. The Appalachian Park association whose headquarters are in Asheville has been for a year actively promoting the conversion of all lands bought by the forest reservation commission into national parks, which should be connected by automobile roads built by the government.

It is estimated that there are now 3,000 deer on the tract, besides bears, wolves, foxes, squirrels, raccoons, quail, wild turkeys, native pheasants and the descendants of the English and Chinese pheasants and the wild boar with which it was stocked many years ago.

WHITE CLOTHES HEALTHFUL.

Secretary of Kansas State Board Says Black Attire Means Discomfort. Topeka, Kan.—Dr. J. C. Crumblin, secretary of the state board of health, would make the main streets of all Kansas towns resemble the promenade of a tropical city.

He has addressed a circular to the men of Kansas asking them to discard their blue and black summer clothing for white. He wears white during the hot season and says it pays. Also, he would discard ice water as a menace to health.

"Women have learned the value of white dresses in the summer time," said Dr. Crumblin, "I can't understand why the men haven't learned the lesson long ago. Anything that resists heat in the summer makes for health. Black, blue or any other dark cloth is a heat absorbent and injurious.

"Our summer temperatures are as high and sometimes higher, than in the tropics. The fact that the air is dryer is all that saves us. White clothes in the tropics are not a whim of fashion. They are a tribute to necessity and health.

"The man in dark, heavy clothing always is rushing to the ice water," continued Dr. Crumblin. "And ten to one he will have a grouch on, while the cool man in white clothing is serene and even tempered. The ice water, dark clothing and the grouch are detrimental to public and private health."

SAYS VICE CRUSADE HARMS.

Poor Girls No Worse Than Others, Adds W. H. Allen.

Madison, Wis.—"We must stop the morbid discussion of vice from the pulpit," Dr. William H. Allen, head of the New York bureau of a municipal research, told the anti-vice committee of the Wisconsin legislature. "If discussion of this subject by women and others should be omitted for ten years," he adds, "there would be wholesome improvement."

"This country is about to pay heavily for this anti-vice crusade. It is rank injustice to poor girls to say that evil exists more among them than among others. There is no evidence that vice is on the increase. It is probably on the decrease."

The Rev. E. G. Updike of the First Congregational church said that moral conditions, notably among university students, are better than twenty years ago, and the conduct of the students is generally good and steadily improving.

Wears Same Boots Forty-two Years. Janesville, Wis.—Philo Thomas, eighty-nine, La Prairie, is wearing a pair of old style knee high boots which he bought in Janesville in 1872, forty-two years ago. He has worn them nearly every day since he purchased them, having them rebottomed four times since 1872. Gilbert Evenson, who made the boots, verified the story. He said they were made of imported French calf and sold for $12 or $15.
